A Boutique Stay with Comfort & Care

A Neighborhood Stay with a Calmer Pace

Located just south of Denver in the heart of Englewood, The Stay on Marion offers a quieter and more grounded alternative to the pace of downtown hotels.

Thoughtfully designed interiors, cozy details, and a calm neighborhood setting create a stay that feels comfortable and personal. An ideal choice for visitors connecting with loved ones, attending business events, or simply seeking a refreshing getaway.

Close to Care

When being nearby matters.

The Stay on Marion sits just minutes from Swedish Medical Center, Craig Hospital, and Porter Adventist Hospital in the heart of Englewood's officially designated Wellness District.

Whether you're here to support a loved one, recover between long days, or work in healthcare yourself, we offer something many hotels don't: a calm, human place to rest when the days are heavy.

No sterile hallways. No long commutes. Just a soft place to land.

Designed for Real Life

Big on cozy, comfort, and care.

This Denver adjacent boutique hotel is a self check-in hotel designed for real stays and overnights. Each space is thoughtfully furnished with kitchens, living areas, and warm details that help you exhale the moment you arrive.

You'll find great sleep, good style, and just enough charm to make it feel like your own place.

- Snug, but never stuffy.
- Where great sleep meets good style.
- Cozy digs. Cool vibes. No front desk.

Here for you

We get it. We got it. All good.

Our guests include patient families, rehabilitation caregivers, travel nurses, visiting clinicians, and people navigating difficult or emotional moments, alongside travelers who simply appreciate a thoughtful, low-key stay.

You don't need a medical reason to stay here. But if you do, you'll feel the difference.

Your stay, your way.

Each room at The Stay on Marion is uniquely designed for comfort, quiet, and ease. Explore our available stays and choose the one that fits your rhythm.
